

HOPE IN THE VALLEY

What is Hope in the Valley?

We are a nonprofit cancer prevention advocacy organization. We create and support events that bring our community together to raise awareness and funds for local cancer services and organizations. We want to bring HOPE to the Chippewa Valley that with our efforts we can have HOPE while going through the journey of cancer and what is next after cancer.

Who is impacted by the work of Hope in the Valley?

- American Cancer Society
- Chippewa Valley non-profit organizations who provide free or reduce cost cancer services
- Men, women & children

How can you become a part of Hope in the Valley?

- Sponsor an Event
- Volunteer at an Event
- Attend an Event

Our mission is to bring awareness to the Chippewa Valley all the free or reduced cost services available before, during and after the journey with Cancer.

Hope in the Valley consists of nine foundation members. Renelle Laffe, founder and event director of Hope in the Valley, started Hope in the Valley after being a part of lives who have fought cancer. After being by the side of her mother during her battle of cancer she felt the need to give people HOPE and awareness of what programs are available during and after treatment. Also giving HOPE that with research we can give HOPE to those that face cancer.
